

6516208430.txt

I support satellite radio. I live in a rural area and have very little access to a variety of programming and satellite radio allows me to keep up on news and to be entertained. I travel by car throughout the eastern US and can not always find local programming with traffic and weather reports, without a distracting search. Satellite radio allows me to be informed with the touch of a button.